OVERVIEW

Chris is an associate in the firm's Business Practice Group. Prior to joining Buckingham, he worked with Pease Bell CPAs and Plante Moran, gaining valuable accounting and tax experience. This gives Chris a practical perspective on how legal decisions affect reporting obligations, and allows him to anticipate potential issues and help clients pursue well-coordinated solutions.

Chris' approach to building a relationship with his clients begins with understanding each client's needs and objectives. This enables him to provide tailored advice designed to help clients achieve their goals in a practical and tax-efficient manner.

EXPERIENCE

- Reporting M&A transactions including like kind exchanges (§ 1031), rollovers (§ 1045), deemed asset sales (§ 338(h)(10)); pre-transaction structuring to minimize tax liability; IRS Audits and Appeals; Federal Estate and Gift Tax Returns (Form 706 & 709)
- Practice areas included Federal Income tax, Federal Estate and Gift Tax, Tax Structuring, SALT, and Tax Controversy
