OVERVIEW

Elisa serves as Of Counsel in our Trusts and Estates Practice Group. She guides and educates clients through wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and other estate planning strategies, helping them make informed decisions with confidence. Elisa's objective is to help clients arrive at a plan that is thorough and meets their personal goals.

Elisa understands that managing responsibilities of estate and trust administration can be overwhelming. She assists clients through every step of this process. Inspired by personal experience and grounded in years of legal practice, she provides thorough, professional, and compassionate guidance to ease the burden during such times. In instances where estate and trust disputes arise, Elisa seeks fair, efficient resolutions for her clients.
