OVERVIEW

As an Associate in the Health & Medicine Group, Marina helps clients navigate healthcare regulations, draft and review agreements, and manage compliance challenges. With a strong background in legal research and documentation, she provides clear, practical guidance to support operational goals and reduce risk.

Marina earned her law degree from Cleveland State University College of Law, where she received multiple CALI Awards and served as a legal research assistant. She also holds a Bachelor of Science in Biology, summa cum laude, from Cleveland State University, giving her unique insight into scientific and technical issues in healthcare law. Her experience includes work with the Cuyahoga County Prosecutor's Office and several research projects involving intellectual property and federal courts. Known for her adaptability, Marina is committed to delivering solutions that help clients succeed in a complex regulatory environment.
